

jo may percussion

Spoons Workshops for all ages

For schools, community groups,
parties, festivals and other events

Photo: Jo Salisbury

"Jo leads her workshops with infectious energy and fun, leaving children and adults of all ages engaged, excited and eager for more!"

Cassie Tait
English Folk Dance and Song Society

"I was amazed and delighted by the music from our spoons, the teacher displayed dazzling virtuosity. I'll never look at our cutlery drawer in the same way!"

Dr Stephanie Taylor
Adult participant

www.jomaypercussion.co.uk

Jo's spoons workshops aim to develop:

- coordination/fine motor skills • rhythm
- teamwork • creativity • listening skills
- confidence • performance skills
- knowledge of different traditions

"You covered just about every physical objective there is going – body awareness, bilateral integration, hand-eye coordination, muscular strength, sensory processing and so it goes on!"

Anna Clow

www.musicbuds.org

Photo: Eilana Sullivan

Jo provides a huge assortment of metal, wooden and plastic spoons including joined-up ones.

Participants learn a variety of techniques which are then built up to create a routine, usually accompanying a song or tune.

Jo often works with another musician who will provide fantastic instrumental accompaniment for the workshops.

All workshops are tailored to suit your event and can be adapted to tie in with your particular theme or project.

"Get inspired to make music for your kitchen!"

jomay@phonecoop.coop

07973 721260

www.jomaypercussion.co.uk

 JoMayPercussion

 @JoSpoons1

Instagram.com/jospoons1

Maya, age 5, École Internationale Bilingue, Lamartine, Paris

jo may
percussion